While recognising the right of parents to enrol their child in the school of their choice, the Board of Management of Rathgormack National School also has a responsibility to respect the rights of the existing school community and in particular, the children already enrolled. This requires balanced judgements, which are guided by the principles of natural justice and acting in the best interest of all children. Assisting the school in such circumstances, the Board of Management reserves the right to determine the maximum number of children in each separate classroom bearing in mind:

- size/available space in classrooms
- educational needs of children of a particular age
- multi-grade classes
- presence of children with special educational/behavioural needs
- DES maximum class average directives.

Pupils wishing to transfer from other schools are enrolled subject to these considerations and to the rules governing National Schools, as well as our own school's admission policy.

Other pupils are enrolled during the school year if newly resident in the area.

New Junior Infants may only be admitted to the school during the month of September, unless transferring from another school.

The following are the school's arrangements for students, where the parents have requested that the student attend the school without attending religious instruction in the school. These arrangements will not result in a reduction in the school day of such students:

A written request should be made to the Principal of the school. A meeting will then be arranged with the parent(s) or the student, as the case may be, to discuss how the request may be accommodated by the school.
